Grille Types

For easy cleaning, Andersen Finishgrille grilles are factory installed between the panes of glass. They match the window's exterior color.

Removable interior grilles let you combine the beauty of wood with easy cleaning.

Removable interior grilles can be combined with permanently applied exterior grilles for a more authentic look.

Permanently applied grilles give your windows rich wood accents inside, along with color-matched exterior grilles that are virtually maintenance-free.

Permanently applied grilles can be combined with a spacer between the panes to recreate the traditional look of muntin bars.
